Detected role: AI Content Editor

#2 Capabilities vs limitations (hallucinations) AI Literacy & Foundations Critical

Understanding AI limitations is crucial for ensuring content accuracy. The learner has some exposure to AI governance, but technical understanding of AI's limitations is a gap.

Required: Level 2

#3 Prompt debugging & iteration Prompting & HITL Workflows

While the learner has experience with AI tools, debugging and iterating prompts for optimal AI output is a new skill that will enhance their content creation capabilities.

Required: Level 3

#4 Recognizing AI-generated content Critical Thinking & Info Eval Critical

The learner's experience in evaluating content can be leveraged, but recognizing AI-generated nuances is a new area that will be critical for the role.

Required: Level 2

#5 AI-generated content disclosure Governance & Compliance

The learner's background in AI governance provides a foundation, but specific disclosure practices for AI-generated content are a new area to develop.

Required: Level 2

#1 Draft -> critique -> revise Prompting & HITL Workflows Critical

The JD emphasizes 'editing and optimizing content' and 'developing new content ideas', which requires iterative refinement of AI-generated content.

Required: Level 3

#2 Cross-functional AI collaboration Communication & Collaboration Critical

The role involves 'collaborating with AI developers' and 'coordinating with cross-functional teams', necessitating strong collaboration skills.

Required: Level 3

#7 AI documentation best practices Communication & Collaboration

Developing 'editorial guidelines and style standards' requires documenting best practices for AI content.

Required: Level 3

#8 IP/copyright awareness AI Literacy & Foundations

Creating AI-generated content involves understanding IP and copyright issues, as implied by the JD's focus on content creation.
